DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 2 and 23-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Donnelly et al.

Donnelly discloses an expandable screen (shown unexpanded in figure 1 and expanded in figure 2). Filtering media 4 stretches circumferentially when the screen is expanded. Filtering media 4 are in the form of strips disposed in a helical configuration. As to claim 23, filtering media 4 are in elongate strips wrapped helically about a longitudinal axis. As to claim 24, the filtering media can be formed from a woven material (see. Col. 5, lines 20-22). Since the filtering media 4 is oriented helically and all woven materials have strands, the strands are oriented helically. As to claim 25, the filtering media overlaps.

Claims 2,23 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Saadeh et al.

Saadeh discloses an expandable screen (see abstract). Filtering media (figure 3) stretches circumferentially when the screen is expanded and is formed as an elongated strip wrapped helically. As to claim 23, the filtering media is wrapped helically about a longitudinal axis. As to claim 25, the media is disposed in multiple wraps.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 26-33 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
